

New Privacy Laws

Is your agency ready for the PRIVACY LAW changes?

From 12 March 2014 Australia's privacy laws changed. A new set of 13 Australian Privacy Principles (APP's) now apply with changes to direct marketing, the disclosure of personal information and requesting access to, and correction of, personal information held by an organisation.

Documentation Package

In consultation with REIQ, Carter Newell Lawyers have developed a suite of documents for real estate agencies to use to meet their obligations under the Australian Privacy Principles.

Available as word documents that you can add your agency specific information to, this comprehensive suite of forms will ensure your agency meets its legislative responsibilities.

All purchases of the suite of Australian Privacy Principles Forms include a free recording of the APP session presented by Carter Newell Lawyers (accessed via website link).

Cost:

$250 members (GST inclusive) |

$350 non members (GST inclusive)

Session Recording

In February Stephen Hughes, Special Counsel at Carter Newell Lawyers, delivered sell-out sessions to REIQ members on the overhaul of Australia's privacy laws.

This session provides valuable information and insight on how you and your agency can be prepared for the new laws.

Due to the strong response from our members this 2 hour APP session is available to purchase as a recording (accessed via website link).

Cost:

$50 members (GST inclusive) |

$80 non members (GST inclusive)
