Sponsorship Prospectus

Where real estate meets technology

Many real estate professionals are early adopters of technology. Among the first to explore CRMs and marketing automation, there's a cohort of agents always on the lookout for the "next big thing" and how tech can help them get the edge over competitors.

This event is for them. They're engaged. They're curious. They're your new clients.

Show them how your product or service can propel their business forwards and keep them at the forefront of this evolving digital landscape.

We'll give you the chance to let them touch, feel and see your products in action at this "hands on" event.

Sponsor REIQ's Real Tech to:

- Showcase your products and services
- Speak directly to your target market
- Enhance your credibility
- Increase brand awareness & recognition
- Nurture existing relationships
- Generate new leads & contacts
